

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW HAMPSHIRE

J. Keith Radecic

v.

Case No. 20-cv-495-AJ

Southern New Hampshire Radiology
Consultants, P.C.

O R D E R

On July 13, 2020, the parties submitted a proposed discovery plan. Doc. no. 7. The discovery plan is approved with the following changes:

Scheduling Designation	Deadline
Trial	Two-week period beginning February 15, 2022
Demand	September 1, 2020
Offer	October 15, 2020
Amendment of Pleadings	November 2, 2020
Joinder of Additional Parties	November 2, 2020
Third-Party Actions	November 2, 2020
Expert Disclosures and Reports	Defendant: May 14, 2021
Rule 26(e) Supplementations	August 2, 2021
Challenges to Expert Testimony	December 31, 2021
Mandatory Disclosures	August 13, 2020

Interrogatories, Requests for Admission, Depositions. The court declines to adopt the parties' specific proposed deadlines for interrogatories, requests for admission, and depositions as part of this scheduling order.

Electronic Information Disclosures. The parties shall meet and confer after the exchange of initial disclosures regarding the production of electronically stored information (ESI). These discussions should be framed in the context of specific claims and defenses and the nature and complexity of the matter. The parties shall consider the factors set out in Civil Form 2¹ and submit a supplemental statement regarding ESI no later than September 15, 2020.

Claims of privilege/protection of trial preparation materials. If a party withholds information based on a claim of privilege, the party must “expressly make the claim” and describe the information not disclosed in a manner that allows “other parties to assess the claim.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b) (5) (A) .

In the event a party or non-party inadvertently produces or discloses documents or information protected by the attorney-client privilege, work-product doctrine, or any other privilege recognized by law, the party or non-party that inadvertently produced or disclosed the privileged information will promptly notify the party or parties to whom it was disclosed. Upon receiving such notification, the receiving party shall, within seven (7) days: (1) return the inadvertently produced information and any copies thereof; (2) destroy any remaining copies of such information; (3) not use or disclose such information further; and (4) take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified. The inadvertent production of such material will not be deemed to waive any privileges. Nothing herein will prevent any party from arguing that the material was never privileged or otherwise immune from disclosure, or that such privilege or immunity has otherwise been waived. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(b)(5)(B).

Completion of discovery. The parties are advised that the court considers the deadline for the completion of discovery to be a deadline by which discovery is to be completed - not a deadline by which discovery is to be served. Propounding parties shall ensure that enough time remains in the discovery period for the recipient to provide its responses by that deadline. Where Federal Rule 33(b)(2), 34(b)(2), or 36(a)(3) would call for a response after the deadline, the recipient need not provide a response.

Discovery disputes. Should discovery disputes arise in this case, prior to filing a motion to compel, the parties may request an informal conference. The party or counsel seeking discovery-related relief should confer with opposing counsel, identify mutually available dates, and then contact the Deputy Clerk to schedule a conference with the court. The court will inform the parties and counsel what written materials, if any, will be permitted in advance of the conference. To the extent this informal process does not resolve the discovery dispute, the parties may file an appropriate motion.²

Status Conference. The parties shall file a joint statement on the status of discovery no later than 60 days prior to the close of discovery deadline. The parties should indicate in that report whether they request a discovery status conference before the court. If the parties request a conference, or if the court otherwise deems one necessary, then the Clerk's Office shall schedule a conference as soon as is practicable.

SO ORDERED.

United States Magistrate Judge

Mark V. Franco, Esq.

² The parties proposed holding a preliminary pretrial conference in March 2021. In light of the issuance of a scheduling order, this request is moot. The parties can request a case management conference or a discovery conference at any time.
